FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION On this day Mary & Joseph brought their child Jesus to the Temple. They offered him as a gift to God. They recognised that he was a gift to them from God. All our children are God's gifts to us. We are encouraged to treasure them and learn from them.

Mary and Joseph were told that Jesus would bring some suffering to them. The life of a family involves accepting our children and helping them to grow. We do our best to hand on the faith to them. We are blessing candles today so that all of us can be a light to the world.
